NOTICE OF APPRECIATION: I was especially honored to be asked to do a design space at this year's incredible Home for the Holidays Showhouse as we continue to celebrate the 30th anniversary of opening Boxwoods Gardens & Gifts. I was inspired to decorate this bedroom as I loved how bright and light it was due to the many windows (even if the view wasn't ideal). When designing a space, I prefer to not start with a blank canvas as I prefer to work with clients that have pieces they love or have a sentimental attachment to. I then use those items in my design, even if a piece needs to be repurposed from its original use or location. My design philosophy is apparent in this room by the use of the antique framed negatives which I hung on the bathroom windows in an unexpected way. Additionally, the antique French bibliothèque is filled with a collection of my own treasured objects instead of its original use as a repository for books. I am eternally thankful to Lacefield Designs for their amazing line of fabrics and pillows, as well as their generosity and professionalism. Also, a big thanks to Moattar for the loan of the beautiful rug and to the workroom of Old Spool Sewing Company and owners Jessica Anderson and John Crowe for their invaluable workroom expertise. It really does take a village!

Most sincerely,
Randy Korando
